These procedures should not be taken to supplant any additional inquiries or procedures that the Specified Parties would undertake in consideration of the Transaction.

For purposes of performing these agreed-upon procedures, no exceptions were reported for differences within the tolerances stated in Exhibit 1 of this AUP Report.

We make no representations regarding the methodologies or assumptions provided to us by the Company.

Procedures Performed

Procedure 1 Using the Initial Data Tape, the Specified Parties instructed us to randomly select 431 Properties (the “Sample Properties”) from the 1,655 Properties on the Initial Data Tape. We make no representations as to the adequacy of the sample size, nor do we draw any conclusions about the entire Initial Data Tape based on the sample size and results of the procedures performed.

For each of the Sample Properties, using the information, instruction, and assumptions provided by the Company and listed in Exhibit 1, we compared the Sample Attributes, as shown on the Initial Data Tape, with the corresponding information in the applicable Source Documents provided by the Company as of the Lease Review Date. For the purposes of our comparison procedures, we were instructed by the Company to use the logic enumerated in the applicable “Comparison Instructions” section of Exhibit 1. We make no representations regarding the methodologies or assumptions provided to us by the Company.

For each Sample Attribute, for the purposes of our comparison procedures, we were instructed by the Company to use the tolerances listed in Exhibit 1 as the maximum acceptable difference.

We compared the Sample Attributes on the Initial Data Tape for the Sample Properties to the Source Documents and found them to be in agreement, with the exception of the following differences (the “Purchase and Lease Discrepancies”).

Table 1: Purchase and Lease Discrepancies

#	Included on the Final Data Tape?	Sample Attribute	Initial Data Tape		Source Document Value
			Value
68	Yes	Contractual Rent/Month (Rented)	$1,990.00		$1,945.26
227	Yes	Lease Start Date	September 1, 2015		September 1, 2014
363	Yes	Acquisition Type	Bulk Sale		MLS

Procedure 2 For each of the Sample Properties included on the Final Data Tape provided by the Company, we performed the following procedures:

- For the Sample Attributes relating to the Purchase and Lease Discrepancies, we compared the “Source Document Value” shown in Table 1 to the corresponding Sample Attribute value on the Final Data Tape and noted no differences; and
- For each Sample Attribute that did not have a Purchase and Lease Discrepancy, we compared the Initial Data Tape to the Final Data Tape and noted no differences above the tolerances in Exhibit 1.

We make no representations as to the adequacy of the sample size, nor do we draw any conclusions about the entire Final Data Tape based on the sample size and results of the procedures performed.

Procedure 3 On the Final Data Tape, we identified 94 Properties where the Month-to-Month data attribute was equal to “Yes”. Of these 94 Properties, 18 of the Properties (the “Month to Month Sample Properties”) were part of the Sample Properties. Using the MTM Support File provided by the Company, the Final Data Tape, and the methodology provided by the Company, we noted without exception that for each of the Month to Month Sample Properties:

- the Rented data attribute was equal to “Rented” within the Final Data Tape;
- the Date of Lease Expiration Sample Attribute was prior to the Property Cut-Off Date; and
- as indicated in the MTM Support File, the tenant had been charged and paid rent for the month of January 2023, or if rent was unpaid and overdue by more than 30 days as of the Property Cut-Off Date, the Tenant Monthly Rent Days DQ data attribute was greater than zero on the Final Data Tape.

Procedure 4 Using the information, instruction, and assumptions provided by the Company, for each of the Properties represented on the Final Data Tape, we performed the respective procedures for the fields listed in Exhibit 2. The Company provided the Final Data Tape, Supplemental Data Files and certain calculation methodologies as identified in Exhibit 2 for the purposes of comparing or recalculating each characteristic and instructed us to use these methodologies for the purpose of our procedures. We make no representations regarding the methodologies or assumptions provided to us by the Company.

In performing this procedure, we received one or more preliminary data files and performed certain procedures as set forth in Exhibit 2. The procedures identified differences, which were communicated to the Responsible Party. The Responsible Party revised one or more of the preliminary data files based on such communicated differences, where they determined it to be appropriate.

We performed this procedure on the Final Data Tape, and we either (i) compared the information in the Supplemental Data Files to the Final Data Tape, as applicable or (ii) compared the recalculated values to the corresponding values on the Final Data Tape, as applicable, and, in each case, found them to be in agreement.

This agreed-upon procedures engagement was conducted in accordance with attestation standards established by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants. We were not engaged to, and did not conduct an audit or an examination engagement, the objective of which would be the expression of an opinion, or a review engagement, the objective of which would be the expression of a conclusion, on the accuracy of certain attributes of the collateral assets included on the Final Data Tape. Accordingly, we do not express such an opinion or conclusion. Had we performed additional procedures, other matters might have come to our attention that would have been reported to you.

In performing this engagement, we are required to be independent of the Responsible Party and to meet our ethical responsibilities, in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements related to our agreed-upon procedures engagement.
